Zaichenberger [42].

THE FIRST SESSION was called to order by the President, Mr. Jakobson, at 9 A.M. on Thursday, 27 December; about 150 persons were present. Papers 1-6 were read and discussed. The session was adjourned at 12 noon.

THE SECOND SESSION was called to order by Mr. Jakobson at 2 P.M. About 155 persons were present. Papers 7-12 were read and discussed. The session was adjourned at 5 P.M.

THE ANNUAL INFORMAL BANQUET for members and their guests was held at 7 P.M., with 83 persons in attendance. Mr. Bolling, first editor of LANGUAGE, was introduced by Mr. Bloch, and spoke to the Society of significant developments in linguistics. After the banquet Mr. Jakobson gave the Presidential Address: Metalinguage as a Linguistic Problem. About 120 persons were present.

THE BUSINESS MEETING (THIRD SESSION) was called to order by Mr. Jakobson at 9 A.M. on Friday, 28 December. The minutes of the preceding meeting were called for. The Secretary reported that the minutes of the Thirtieth Annual Meeting, held in Chicago on 29-31 December 1955, and of the Eighteenth Summer Meeting, held in Ann Arbor on 27-28 July 1956, would appear in Bulletins 29 and 30, and would be duly distributed to members of the Society. It was voted that the reading of these minutes be dispensed with, and that they be accepted.

The Secretary presented the following report, which was ordered to be received and filed:

The corrected active membership was last reported to the Society as 1090. We regret to report a further correction, since our member A. M. Tozzer died during 1954, though notice was not received until this year.

There were 132 new members, and 9 reinstatements. Nineteen were dropped for non-payment of dues, and 31 resigned: F. B. Anderson, C. W. Ashley, R. A. Caldwell, J. M. Carrière, H. J. Darling, I. L. Foster, E. François, E. J. Frei, A. F. Gamper, P. C. Grose, A. G. Hatcher, J. D. Hawkins, J. H. Herriott, V. Hull, A. H. Kelso de Montigny, J. M. Kirkendall, D. B. Lebow, C. A. Luttrell, N. Mann, J. I. McEnerney, Hildegard Must, E. E. Pantzner, W. Percy, W. A. Read, H. A. Rydings, Sister M. Francis Beirne, L. E. Stewart, T. Thienemann, G. Tibon, S. Wediewicz, M. F. Woodward.

We record with sorrow the death of three regular members during 1956: H. L. Mencken in January, E. A. H. Fuchs in March, and J. Cantineau in April.

On 15 December 1956 we had then an active membership of 1178, a net gain of 88 as against a net gain of 66 for the year preceding.

We had 24 Honorary Members at the start of the year. During the year there were two deaths: P. Kretschmer on 9 March, and C. Brockelmann on 6 May. On 15 December we had therefore 22 Honorary Members.

Domestic Library subscriptions were 236, of which 18 were new. There were 2 failures to renew.

Foreign Library subscriptions were 345, of which 93 were new. There were 36 failures to renew. Subscribing Libraries in 1956 were 581. The net gain in domestic and foreign libraries is 49.

The total net gain in subscriptions, personal and library, is thus 134, as against a net gain of 104 for 1955. The number of Student Memberships continues to grow normally; this year there are 103 as against 94 for the year preceding. There are 12 Associate Members, as against nine for the year preceding.

As Treasurer, Mr. Hill presented the following report:

Linguistic Society of America

Investment in United States Bonds, Series G..... 8,000.00

The Society has the above investment in bonds. The LSA Endowment totals $4,764.50. Not all of this sum (which represents accumulation, $129.00 of which came in during 1956) is specifically represented in the $8,000.00; in fact, it would be difficult to determine just which portion of the $8,000.00 was paid from endowment funds and which from regular free funds. However, since the revenue from the investment is used to the same purpose whether coming from LSA Endowment funds or current free funds, it may be assumed that only the excess ($4,235.50 over the amount of the endowment) is invested from regular free funds.

Deposits on Dissertations

The Society had deposits on hand from the following individuals to be used for publishing dissertations:

Pauline Cook Hall.....	899.11
George N. Putnam and Edna M. O'Hern.....	522.05	1,421.16
A further advance from Pauline Cook Hall.....		792.54

Expenditures of these special funds were made as follows:

George N. Putnam and Edna M. O'Hern.....	522.05
Balance 15 December 1956.....	1,691.65

It was voted to adopt the Treasurer's report and order it filed, subject to completion of the Auditor's report for inclusion in the Bulletin.²

² We have examined the Schedule of Assets and Liabilities and the Profit and Loss Statement submitted by the Treasurer of the Linguistic Society of America for the period 15 December 1955 to 15 December 1956, and consider, from a check of the entries in the Ledger, that the Schedule and the Statement are correct.

(signed) MRS. JANET B. SAWYER
E. BAGBY ATWOOD

On behalf of the Executive Committee, Mr. Hill presented the following report:

During the year, the Executive Committee took the following actions by correspondence:

1. Approved the University of Michigan's nomination of Mr. Dillon as Collitz Professor for 1956, vice Mr. Kurylowicz, who was unable to accept the nomination previously offered.
2. Selected the papers for the Thirty-First Annual Meeting. The Secretary wishes to report that every effort was made to perform this task early enough so that programs could be in the mail well before the Christmas rush. While these efforts have been successful and there have been no complaints from members who failed to receive their programs (except for one instance of lost mail), there have been an unusually large number of requests for program changes. The Secretary requests members to hold such requests to a minimum, and points out that he cannot be responsible for arranging changes, particularly those which involve a request for special position on the program made after the program is in print.

The Executive Committee held a special meeting at the Michigan Union on the campus of the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor on 27 July 1956. Present were Mr. Jakobson presiding, Miss Haas, Mr. Hill, Mr. Hoenigswald, and Mr. Paper. Mr. Sledd acted as proxy for Mr. Hamp, and Mr. Pulgram for Mr. Fowler. Miss Hahn and Mr. Hodge were present by constitutional provision but without vote, and Mr. Marekwardt by invitation.

The Committee took the following actions:

1. Elected new members, Nos. 2326-2388.
2. Discussed at length a proposal by David W. Reed that the Society authorize a branch for members on the Pacific Coast, to be affiliated with the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast, under an arrangement similar to that which has existed for many years between the Modern Language Association and the Philological Association of the Pacific Coast. Upon information that such arrangements have not worked smoothly for the MLA, the proposal was rejected. Similar proposals have been discussed at previous meetings, and the Committee reminds members that the Society has expressed itself as welcoming the organization of local linguistic clubs, but has never authorized affiliation with other organizations in terms of joint collection of dues.
3. Discussed the proposal of D. L. Olmsted, the compiler of the last index, that his fee be used to establish a Bloomfield Memorial Fund, the proceeds of which would be used to finance field study of American Indian languages. The gift would depend on securing a reasonably substantial sum by gifts from the members of the Society. The proposal was discussed, with the agreement that the Secretary should circularize the members in order to determine the degree of individual support for such a fund. It was further agreed that if only a relatively small sum should accrue as a result, the whole should be spent in support of a single study, and that if the amount secured were negligible, the original gift from Mr. Olmsted should be returned to him with sincere thanks.
3. Instructed the Secretary to accept with regret the resignation of A. C. Baugh from the Advisory Committee on Investments, and instructed the President and Editor to inquire on their local campuses as to the possibility of appointing advisors from the groups responsible for the investments of Harvard and Yale, respectively.
4. Accepted the invitation of the University of Michigan for the Linguistic Institute of 1957, and instructed the Secretary to write to Dean Dorr to that effect.
5. Elected Mr. Jakobson as delegate to the International Conference of Linguists to be held at Oslo in the summer of 1957. This action was unusual, since delegates are normally appointed by the President. In electing our President as delegate, the Committee felt that he should be urged to accept a responsibility which he would not propose for himself.
6. Authorized the Secretary to purchase a Corporate Seal, an action made necessary by the recent bequest to the Society of a sum of $1002.00 from the estate of Charles M. Taylor.

The Executive Committee held its regular meeting in the Blue Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia on 26 December 1956, at 7 P.M. Present were Miss Haas, Mr. Hill, Mr. Hamp, Mr. Hoenigswald, Mr. Paper, and Miss Hahn as proxy for Mr. Jakob-son. Messrs. Bloch, Bolling, Cowan, Joos, and Whatmough were present by constitutional provision but without vote.

The Committee took the following actions:

1. Elected new members, Nos. 2389-2465.
2. Discussed the reports of the Secretary and Treasurer, as well as the notification from the Waverly Press that printing costs would again rise sharply at the beginning of 1957. The Secretary was authorized to negotiate with the Waverly Press concerning the type of paper to be used for LANGUAGE, in which a substantial saving seems to be possible.
3. Discussed the place of the Linguistic Institute for 1958 and the years following. No action was taken, but Mr. Hoenigswald and Mr. Cowan were appointed a committee of two to draw up a statement of policy on Linguistic Institutes, to report to the Executive Committee at a special meeting at 11 P.M. two days later.
4. Recommended emeritus status for five members: A. B. Benson, C. U. Clark, C. E. Parmenter, K. Reuning, and J. Van Horne.
5. Discussed and endorsed the report of the Committee on Honorary Members.
6. Elected Mr. Malkiel to the Committee on Honorary Members, to serve for three years.
7. Elected Mr. Winter to the Standing Committee on Research to serve for three years.
8. Elected Mr. Whatmough chairman of a committee, with power to appoint the other members, to study the possibility of inviting the International Congress of Linguists for 1962.

The Executive Committee held a special supplementary meeting in the Blue Room of the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia at 11 P.M. on 28 December 1956. Present were Mr. Jakobson presiding, Miss Haas, Mr. Hill, Mr. Hamp, Mr. Hoenigswald, Mr. Paper, and Mr. Bloch as proxy for Mr. Fowler. Messrs. Cowan, Joos, and Whatmough were present by constitutional provision, and Messrs. Ferguson and Twaddell by invitation—these five without vote.

The Committee took the following actions:

1. Received and discussed the report from Mr. Cowan and Mr. Hoenigswald on policy for the location of future Linguistic Institutes. The Secretary was instructed to discuss with Mr. Marckwardt, Director of the Linguistic Institute for 1957, whether a commitment from the LSA for an Institute at the University of Michigan in 1958 would solve the Institute's problems in dealing with Foundations. In accord with this instruction, the Secretary at once called Mr. Marckwardt by telephone. As a result, the Society accepted the University of Michigan's invitation to hold the Linguistic Institute in Ann Arbor in 1958.
2. Elected Mr. Moulton to serve on the Committee on the place of the Linguistic Institute, vice Mr. Joos resigned. The President designated Mr. Moulton chairman of the committee.

During the year, Mr. Jakobson appointed the following delegates and representatives of the Society to various academic functions and meetings:

1. Mr. Kahane to the 75th Anniversary of the American Classical School at Athens.
2. Messrs. Kluckhohn, Lounsbury, and Voegelin to the Fifth International Congress of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences in Philadelphia.
3. Messrs. Lotz and Sebeok to the International Fenno-Ugrian Congress in Helsinki.
4. Miss Hahn, Mr. Lotz, and Mr. Whatmough to the Eighth International Congress of Linguists in Oslo. As noted above, the Executive Committee at its summer meeting added Mr. Jakobson to this list.
5. Miss Hahn, Mr. Metzger, and Mr. Penzl to the Twenty-Fourth International Congress of Orientalists in Munich.
6. Mr. Barnhart to the Council Meeting of the AAAS in New York, vice Mr. Trager resigned.
7. Miss Hahn to the Academic Convocation commemorating the 50th Anniversary of Pace College.

Acting on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, the Society voted to exempt Messrs. Benson, Clark, Parmenter, Reuning, and Van Horne from further payment of dues. Thereupon it was voted that the report of the Executive Committee be received and filed.

Mr. Bloch, Editor and Chairman of the Committee on Publications, presented the following report, which was ordered to be received and filed:

During the year 1956 the Society issued the following publications:

LANGUAGE, Volume 32, 833 pages.

Bulletin No. 29, 82 pages.

Dissertation No. 54: Bibliography of Spanish linguistics, by Pauline Cook Hall, 162 pages.

This volume of the journal is the largest we have ever published; it is longer by over 35 per cent than the largest volume issued previously (Vol. 27 [1951]: 614 pages). The first number of Volume 32 was dedicated to Alfred L. Kroeber; it contained eighteen specially invited articles by Kroeber's pupils, colleagues, and friends.

Once again my warm thanks are due to the loyal and hardworking handful who share with me the drudgery of proofreading our publications: Werner Winter, Howard B. Garey, and my late secretary, Virginia Simmons. I am happy to welcome a new member to this dedicated group: Warren Cowgill, who has already begun to prove his extraordinary value as a proofreader.

On behalf of the Nominating Committee (Messrs. Whatmough chm., Lane, Yamagiwa), the Secretary presented the following slate:

President: W. Freeman Twaddell, Brown University

Vice-President: R-M. S. Heffner, University of Wisconsin

Secretary-Treasurer: Archibald A. Hill, University of Texas

Executive Committee 1957-58, Madison S. Beeler, University of California (Berkeley), and Charles A. Ferguson, Harvard University

Editor: Bernard Bloch, Yale University

Committee on Publications 1957-58: Ernest F. Haden, University of Texas

Nominating Committee 1957-59: E. Adelaide Hahn, Hunter College

The Secretary reported that all nominees of the Nominating Committee had signified their willingness to serve if elected, and that there had been no nominations by mail ballot. The President called for nominations from the floor, but there were none. On unanimous vote the Secretary was instructed to cast one ballot for all nominees of the Nominating Committee, who were accordingly declared elected.

Mr. Twaddell presented the report of the Committee on Honorary Members (Messrs. Twaddell chm., W. F. Edgerton, Z. S. Harris). The committee proposed two scholars for Honorary Membership: Hermann M. Flasdieck of the University of Heidelberg, and Gesinus G. Kloeke of the University of Leiden. The members present proceeded to ballot on these nominations; both candidates were elected. The meeting now discussed the possibility of electing Jerzy Kurylowicz, Professor of Linguistics at the Uniwersytet Jagielloński in Cracow, a member of the Polish Academy of Science. The Committee on Honorary Members and the Society as a whole had more than once in the past wished to honor this distinguished scholar (holder of the Collitz chair in 1957), but had hitherto held off for fear of causing him embarrassment in his native country. Upon receiving assurance that Mr. Kurylowicz would welcome election, the meeting nominated him from the floor and elected him unanimously to the third and last vacancy in the list of Honorary Members.

Mr. Marekwardt submitted the following report on the Linguistic Institute at the University of Michigan in 1956:

The Linguistic Institute of 1956 was sponsored jointly by the Linguistic Society of America and the University of Michigan. The faculty consisted of W. Freeman Twaddell (Brown University), Associate Director; Dwight L. Bolinger (University of Southern California), Myles L. Dillon (Royal Irish Academy), John H. Fisher (Duke University), Ignace J. Gelb (University of Chicago), Mary R. Haas (University of California), Samuel E. Martin (Yale University), James H. Sledd (University of Chicago), and fourteen members of the University of Michigan staff: James W. Downer, James O. Ferrell, Hans Kurath, Robert Lado, Albert H. Marekwardt, Ernest McCarus, Herbert H. Paper, Herbert Penzl, Gordon E. Peterson, Ernst Pulgram, Yao Shen, Hide Shohara, Waldo E. Sweet, and Joseph K. Yamagiwa. Mr. Dillon held the Collitz Professorship.

Thirty-four courses were offered. These include six basic courses in general and structural linguistics, three structural analyses of modern languages, six courses concerned with various phases of English, eleven in historical and comparative linguistics, four relating linguistics to other disciplines, and four concerned with the practical application of linguistics to language teaching. Not specifically included in the program but closely related to it were two workshops in language teaching and five intensive language courses. Total enrollment in all courses of the Institute numbered 543 separate course elections. These include 30 undergraduate elections, 348 graduate elections, 83 visitors, and 82 course visitations by Ph.D. guests. The 543 course elections involve 190 students, of whom 137 were enrolled in two or more courses in the Institute.

Twenty-nine students in the Institute received summer study aids from the American Council of Learned Societies. The student body also included six Rockefeller Foundation fellows from India and one from Pakistan, and four members of the English Inspectorate of the Egyptian Ministry of Education, here on Fulbright grants. Twenty-seven holders of the doctorate received guest privileges from the University of Michigan.

A noteworthy feature of the Institute was the large attendance at the semiweekly Forum Lectures and the weekly luncheons. The increase in average attendance at the Forum Lectures, from 92 in 1955 to 152 in 1956, is a fair reflection of the growing interest in linguistics and testifies to the timeliness of the programs. Guest lecturers included Ernest F. Haden (University of Texas), Robert LePage (British West Indies), Roman Jakobson (Harvard University), Lorenzo D. Turner (Roosevelt College), E. Adelaide Hahn (Hunter College), and Emmett L. Bennett Jr. (Yale University). The average attendance at the weekly luncheons was 67, also a significant increase over 1955. The summer meeting of the Linguistic Society, held on 27-28 July, was likewise well attended, with 107 members and 133 guests signing the register.

The Linguistic Institute acknowledges with thanks the action of the American Council of Learned Societies in providing fellowships. The Institute is also grateful to the Linguistic Society of America for its contribution of $2324.05 for the Collitz Professorship, and for the income from the Linguistic Institute Endowment Fund, amounting to $699.98.

The following report was presented by J M. Cowan as the Society's delegate to the American Council of Learned Societies:

Your delegate and the Secretary attended the annual meeting of the American Council of Learned Societies, held 26-27 January 1956 in Washington. The program provided for a conference of secretaries of the constituent societies and a meeting of this group with the Board of Directors. Your delegate was elected to the Board of Directors to serve for a four-year term. A large part of the meeting was devoted to three panel sessions dealing with the theme Progress and Survival: The Present-day Relevance of Eighteenth-century Thought. A complete report of the meeting is published in ACLS Bulletin 49.

The Board of Directors of the Council has met monthly and has worked hard to obtain extensive financial support for all phases of the Council's activity. It appears likely that these efforts will bear fruit in the very near future and that the fiscal condition of the Council will be greatly improved.

The activities of the Council's Committee on the Language Program continue to be of outstanding interest to the Society and to all who are concerned with the field of linguistics. Fortunately these activities have not suffered, like other Council activities, from any serious shortage of financial support. The Ford Foundation renewed its grant for the Program in Oriental Languages in the amount of a quarter of a million dollars, and also made a grant of $10,000 for summer study aids in linguistics.

Following is a report of the Committee on the Language Program for 1956 (Martin Joos chairman, William G. Moulton secretary, Theodore Andersson, Bernard Bloch, Archibald A. Hill, Norman A. McQuown, Henry Lee Smith Jr.; associate members John B. Carroll, D. Lee Hamilton, John Kepke; ACLS staff liaison Mortimer Graves).

The Committee met three times during the year, 14-16 April in Washington, 27-28 July in Ann Arbor, and 20-21 October in Washington. On 1 July, through normal rotation, Mr. Joos succeeded Albert H. Marcwardt as Chairman and Mr. Moulton succeeded Mr. Joos as Secretary. A summary report on the various operations maintained by the Committee follows:

ENGLISH FOR FOREIGN SPEAKERS: TEXTS. The two last volumes provided for in the contract with the United States Information Agency (Spoken English for Burmans and English for Speakers of Thai) were published and brought the total number to ten. Towards the end of the year a contract with USIA was signed for pressing the recordings which accompany all books excepting English for Koreans; this work is progressing rapidly as the year ends.

PROGRAM IN ORIENTAL LANGUAGES. In February a new award by the Ford Foundation provided for another three years of this enterprise, devoted to producing basic materials with which Americans can study the significant languages of Asia. During 1956 the following books appeared: The Thai system of writing, by Mary R. Haas; The Tibetan system of writing, by Roy Andrew Miller; A Mongol reader, by William M. Austin, Gombojob Hangin, and Urgunge Onon; and Spoken Lao (Book One), by G. Edward and Thelma W. Roffe. Introduction to spoken Vietnamese, by R. B. Jones and Huynh Sanh Thong, is going to press as this is written, and the publication of a Vietnamese-English students' dictionary by Mr. Thong has just begun. Three other students' dictionaries—Indonesian, Korean, and Burmese—are so far advanced that completion can be anticipated in 1957. Work on a similar Arabic-English dictionary, based upon Wehr's Arabisches Wörterbuch, has just been undertaken at Cornell University. Other work in process in Arabic includes an Arabic reader, a phonology and grammar of Egyptian Arabic, and an Arabic word-frequency list. Readers and textbooks are being prepared in Burmese, Kurdish, East and West Armenian, Javanese, Telugu, Uigur, Shilha Berber, and Chinese dialects; other languages will be added as linguists with the appropriate competences and interest are discovered.

The Committee, in conjunction with the Executive Offices of the ACLS, has begun an over-all evaluative survey of the materials available to Americans for the study of Asian languages.

SUMMER STUDY AIDS IN LINGUISTICS. With funds from the Rockefeller Foundation and assistance from its own Linguistic Research Fund (proceeds from royalties of the Holt Spoken Language Series produced by the ACLS during World War II), the Committee made twenty-nine awards of aids for study at the Linguistic Institute at the University of Michigan during the summer. The awards totaled $11,220 (average $387). These twenty-nine were a selection from 114 applicants, nearly all of whom could usefully have attended the Institute. The Committee feels that until linguistics occupies an appropriate place in the curriculum of American colleges and universities, these study-aids provide the only means through which it can be made nationally available. It foresees, therefore, a steadily advancing demand for them, and a concomitant attempt to increase the representation of linguistics in colleges and universities. Both of these ends are to be served in studies undertaken by the former chairman of the Committee, Mr. Marckwardt. Application has been made for funds to support a program of summer study aids in 1957, but as this report is written there has been no final action on the application.

MECHANICAL TRANSLATION. The Committee has established a subcommittee on mechanical aids to linguistics, a field which has shown remarkable development within the past few years, especially through the expansion of electronic technologies. One element of concern is the construction of devices for mechanical translation. To date most of this work has been in the hands of engineers, who now find themselves faced with linguistic problems but lack adequate linguistic training; similarly, linguists who become involved discover that their electronic, statistical, and engineering competences are inadequate. In an effort to bring electronics engineers and linguists together, the Committee has planned special seminars and conferences to be held at the Linguistic Institute in 1957 and is now seeking funds (principally from the National Science Foundation) for their support. This development is only one exemplification of a process in which the growing edge of linguistics turns out to be its relation with other disciplines: behavioral sciences, psychiatry, communication techniques, etc.

READINGS IN LINGUISTICS. Mr. Joos, as editor, reports steady progress, to the point of virtual completion, of Readings in linguistics, Book One: American writings, a volume of approximately 450 pages. It is hoped that the book will appear early in 1957.

LINGUISTIC RESEARCH FUND. By an arrangement entered into a decade ago, when the Holt-ACLS Spoken Language Series was first published, about half the royalties from the series is put into an author's Royalty Pool, the other half into the Linguistic Research Fund. The authors' Royalty Pool comprises nineteen equal shares, of which twelve have been generously and voluntarily relinquished by their owners (including several past and present members of the Committee) to the Linguistic Research Fund.

The President appointed a Committee on Resolutions consisting of Messrs. Hamp (chairman), Hall, and Paper. The session was adjourned at 10:30 A.M.

THE FOURTH SESSION was called to order at 11 A.M. About 90 persons were present. Papers 13-16 were read and discussed. The session was adjourned at 12 noon.

THE FIFTH SESSION was called to order at 2 P.M. About 100 persons were present. Papers 17-21 were read and discussed. The session was adjourned at 5 P.M.

THE SIXTH SESSION was called to order at 7 P.M. About 90 persons were present. Papers 24-29 were read and discussed. The session was adjourned at 9:30 P.M.

THE SEVENTH SESSION was called to order at 9 A.M., Saturday, 29 December. About 80 persons were present. Papers 30-34 were read and discussed. Before the end of the session, Mr. Hamp presented the following resolution on behalf of the Committee on Resolutions:

The Society expresses its gratitude to the Local Committee on Arrangements, and especially to Mr. Hoenigswald, for their careful and diligent attention to the Society's comfort and well-being during the course of the meetings.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, and the meeting was adjourned at 11 A.M.

The complete list of papers presented at this meeting follows:

1. Arthur Norman (University of Chicago): The speech of New Orleans. Discussion by Kerns, Hill.

2. James W. Marchand (Washington University): Some early examples of German in Hebrew characters. Discussion by Weinreich, Jakobson.
3. William A. Smalley (American Bible Society): Khmu phonology, an experiment in IC analysis. Discussion by Pittman, Garvin, Gage, Noss.
4. Paul Thieme (Yale University): Etymology as a procedure of historical analysis. Discussion by Marchand, Hamp, Ghatage, Hahn, Whatmough, Jakobson, Flood.
5. Winfred P. Lehmann (University of Texas): On early stages of the IE nominal inflection. Discussion by Marchand, Winter, Hoenigswald, Levin.
6. Bjarne Ulvestad (University of California): Terms of direction in a Norwegian fjord dialect. Discussion by Joos, Welmers, Whatmough, Winter.
7. E. Adelaide Hahn (Hunter College): Words for 'chin' and 'knee'. Discussion by Thieme, Whatmough, Marchand, Bloch.
8. Emmett L. Bennett Jr. (Yale University): Greek and Mycenaean. Discussion by Whatmough, Winter.
9. Werner Winter (University of Kansas): Problems in suprasegmental analysis of dead languages. Discussion by Marchand.
10. Augustus F. Brown (University of Pennsylvania): English adjective derivation with -ful, -ly, and -ous. Discussion by Hahn.
11. Isidore Dyen (Yale University): The dialect-language distinction. Discussion by Bloch, Noss, Weinreich, Stankiewicz, Nida, Ulvestad, Kahane, Stockwell.
12. Presidential address by Roman Jakobson (Harvard University): Metalanguage as a linguistic problem. Discussion by Bloch, Hahn, Garvin, Bennett, Wonderly.
13. Walburga von Raffler (Morris Harvey College): Investigation of Italo-American bilinguals. Discussion by Joos, Marchand, Garvin, Landar, Weinreich, Hall, Carroll.
14. Henry R. Kahane (University of Illinois): The system of the verb in the western languages. Discussion by Winter, Hamp, Lees, Garvin, Bloch, Joos.
